Alexandria, Auguſt 15, 1784.

FOR SALE,

That beautiful Seat MOUNT-FELICITY, in the County of Berkeley in the State of Virginia, where the Subſcriber lives, containing 1125 Acres:

FEW Tracts of Land poſſeſs as many advantages as this—Bullſkin, a fine never failing limeſtone ſtream running nearly through the middle of it affords conveniencies and advantages rarely to be met with, particularly two very fine mill ſeats, one of which has a fall of twenty two feet nine inches; and from the ſtream a large quantity of meadow may be watered. The ſoil is rich, the land level, well timbered and but little broken with the limeſtone, about four hundred acres of the land are cleared and in excellent order for cropping, every field having a communication with the water and under good fences.—There are about forty acres of fine Timothy meadow, and the quantity may be encreaſed to an hundred acres, the greateſt part of which may at all ſeaſons of the year be watered from the ſtream. As this land lies open to the barrens, where there are many hundred acres without timber, and thick ſet with blue graſs, it affords one of the fineſt ranges in America. The improvements are a good ſtone dwelling-houſe, kitchen, ſpring-houſe, and other neceſſary out houſes. The ſituation is about two miles from Shenandoah river, and ten from Harper's ferry on Potomack. Upon paying a part of the money in hand, a long credit will be given for the remainder. For further particulars and a view of the premiſes inquire of JOHN GAUNTT.

Auguſt 12, 1784.

Will be let on ground-rent for ever, on the Fourth Tueſday in October next, at Mr. Lomax's Tavern,

Lancaſter, Auguſt 5, 1784.

SIX DOLLARS REWARD.

STOLEN from the Subſcriber's plantation, on Thurſday night the 5th inſt. a large, handſome, well gated bay HORSE, about fourteen hands and an half high, and 9 years old laſt ſpring: He has been formerly hurt in his right hind leg, which occaſions it to be always larger than the other, and by which he may be readily known to be the horſe here deſcribed: He is ſuppoſed to have been rode off by ſome Iriſh ſervant, or by ſome perſon going from this neighbourhood into Carolina, or the back parts of Virginia. Whoever takes up the ſaid horſe, and gives information of him either to me or Mr. WILLIAM MAGRUDER in George-Town, ſo that by that means I recover him again, ſhall receive the above Reward, and every reaſonable expence diſcharged.

GEORGE F. MAGRUDER.

N. B. Said Horſe formerly belonged to Col. PRICE in Frederick-Town.

Montgomery County, Seneca, Aug. 20, 1784.

FOR SALE,

A FULL BRED BULL, of the noted Sunderland breed, imported by Mr. CALVERT, of the State of Maryland. The ſize and form of this animal, are perhaps ſuperior to any of that breed yet raiſed in this country, and will aſtoniſh all whoſe conceptions of either, are derived from a compariſon with the little country race. Particulars may be known by inquiring at the Printing-Office.

Auguſt 23, 1784.

WANTED,

A GENTEEL SADDLE HORSE, not more than ſeven years old, nor leſs than fifteen hands high. Any perſon having ſuch a horſe to diſpoſe of, may hear of a purchaſer by ſnquiring at the Printing-Office.

Alexandria, Auguſt 26, 1784.

THE ſubſcriber will ſell, for Caſh or Tobacco, a PAIR of HORSES, well matched, and broke to a carriage; they are bays, full 15 hands high, 5 years old, warranted ſound.—Alſo a couple of elegant SADDLE-HORSES and ſeveral blooded Colts, from one to four years old. An extenſive credit will be given if required, on giving bond, with approved ſecurity.

GEO. MASON, jun.

Fairfax County, Aug. 18, 1784.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away, laſt night, from the Subſcriber, living on the upper part of Elk-Ridge, in Ann-Arundel County, State of Maryland, two indented Iriſh Servant Men, both imported in the Harmony, Capt. Lyle, from Cork, viz. PATRICK DARCY, by trade a millwright, about 35 years of age, a well made fellow, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, full-faced, round-ſhouldered, ſhort black hair, walks with his toes much turned out; had on and took with him, a brown cloth coat, a jacket, the fore parts of which are corduroy, the backs of linen, a pair of yellow corduroy breeches, one white ſhirt, three Holland ſtocks, a metal ſtock-buckle, one oſnaburg ſhirt, two pair of oſnaburg trouſers, three pair of ribb'd thread hoſe, and three pair of yarn do. two ſhoebuckles, both copper, the one with a broad the other with a narrow rim.—Said Darcy writes a very good hand, and it is probable he will forge a diſcharge and paſs for himſelf and Donovan.

PEIRCE DONOVAN, by trade a ſtone-maſon, about 32 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, fair complexion, light hair, which is ſhort, and tied behind, gray eyes and red beard, has ſeveral letters mark'd upon one of his arms, (I believe the right) between the elbow and wriſt, a large ſcar upon one of his legs, which, he ſays, was occaſioned by a muſket ball; had on and took with him, a ſhort brown cloth jacket, and trouſers of the ſame, one oſnaburg ſhirt, one tow linen do. a felt hat half worn, and old ſhoes. Said Donovan has been in the Engliſh ſervice during the late war, on this continent.

Whoever takes up and brings home, either or both of the ſaid Servants, ſhall have, for each, if 10 miles from home, or under, Five Dollars, if 15 miles, Ten Dollars, if 25 miles, Twenty Dollars, if 35 miles, Thirty Dollars, and if 50 miles or upwards, Fifty Dollars, and all reaſonable travelling charges, paid by

JAMES HOWARD.

N. B. All perſons are ſtrictly forbid harbouring ſaid fellows, and all Maſters of Veſſels are forewarned not to carry them off at their peril.

Auguſt 12, 1784.

EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subſcriber living in Winchester, an Apprentice, named JOHN PATTEHUSER, but generally calls himſelf JOHN PATTERSON; he is a native of Germany and has ſerved in the French army in America during the late war, from which he deſerted ſoon after the capture of the Britiſh at York-Town; he is about 25 years of age, 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, a dark complexion, black eyes, and very black hair: He took with him a dark blue broadcloth coat and waiſtcoat, a pair of black velvet breeches, white and fleſh coloured ſtockings, a fur hat, coarſe ſhirt and trouſers which he uſed to work in. Whoever takes up ſaid Apprentice and confines him in any gaol, ſo that his maſter may get him again, ſhall be entitled to the above Reward, and reaſonable charges paid if brought home.

FREDERICK CONRAD.

Winchester, Aug. 16, 1784.

Wanted,

A Single Man, well acquainted with the Engliſh Language and Arithmetic, as a Teacher in the Subſcriber's Family.—Such a Perſon, well recommended, will meet with encouragement by applying to

WARNER WASHINGTON.

Frederick County, Virginia, Aug. 9, 1784.

WANTS A FREIGHT,

Either to the Southward or Northward,

A Fine new SLOOP, about 50 tons burthen, now lying at Capt. Conway's wharf. For particulars inquire of the Captain on board.

Alexandria, Auguſt 25, 1784.

STOCKHOLM, April 20.

THE King of Sweden has allowed free toleration and exerciſe of the Roman Catholic religion to all its profeſſors, throughout his dominions, a priviledge which has been denied them ever ſince the reign of Guſtavus Vaſa, a period of 250 years.

COPENHAGEN, May 18.

The ordinance lately publiſhed here againſt the migrations, obliges all navigators going to the Weſt-Indies, and the iſlands of St. Croix, and St. Thomas, to give ſecurity for their return; it alſo forbids the Jews to ſend any part of their property out of the kingdom. The ſhips that have any national paſſengers, on board without being provided with paſſports, will be ſeized as laden with contraband goods; foreign ſhips even are not excepted from this law, the aim of which is, to prevent the King's ſubjects from emigrating to the United States of North-America, and forming ſettlements there.

LEYDEN, June 12.

Since Wedneſday laſt our city has been in an uproar, and in the greateſt conſternation. For ſome days before, a commotion was obſerved among the people; principally relative to the volunteer corps. On Wedneſday the tumult broke out. It commenced by breaking the windows of the houſe of one of the members of the ſaid corps; on which the dragoons of the garriſon, the ſoldiers in the ſervice of the city, and the burghers, took to their arms, and continued to mount guard at the Town-Hall, where the venerable Magiſtrate attended during a great part of the nights of Wedneſday and Thurſday. On Wedneſday night the populace having put on orange cockades, forced all people in the ſtreets to wear thoſe of the ſame colour. On Thurſday the Magiſtrate cauſed to be read and fixed up a proclamation, forbidding all tumultuous commotions in the ſtreets and public places, on pain of puniſhing the offenders as diſturbers of the public peace and promoters of ſedition; enjoining the peaceable inhabitants to keep with their families within their own houſes, to avoid the accidents which might happen; and promiſing a reward of 1000 florins to any perſons on the apprehenſion and conviction of the offenders. This proclamation reſtored tranquility a little, eſpecially after three of the moſt turbulent had been taken into cuſtody. About noon the mob went to the houſe of a gingerbread baker, with intent to plunder it, but the troops arriving prevented that violence. The houſe of a diſtiller was alſo threatened; but the Magiſtrate being informed of it, ſent a guard of 12 dragoons, who ſtill remain there for its ſecurity. Unfortunately the tumult is recommencing—all is again in confuſion, and an expreſs is ſent to the Hague for the aſſiſtance of ſome troops; in the mean time the burghers and militia remained under arms, and patroles are conſtantly parading.

June 14. Laſt Saturday evening at ſeven o'clock, a proclamation was read, and fixed up by order of the Magiſtrates of this city, forbidding all perſons to diſtinguiſh themſelves by cockades of any colour whatever, under pain of being impriſoned 15 days for the firſt offence; three months for the ſecond, and baniſhed from Leyden during ten years, alſo from the Hague and their diſtricts, for the third offence. Forbidding, moreover, all violences, inſults, and meetings in the ſtreets of more than five perſons, on the penalty of impriſonment and corporal puniſhment for any inſults or ill behaviour: And further, all thoſe who excite or aſſiſt others in pillaging houſes, breaking windows with ſtones, &c. are to ſuffer death. This publication, together with the reinforcement of troops arrived from the Hague, hath reſtored tranquility, and we flatter ourſelves that theſe commotions will have no further diſagreeable conſequences.

LONDON, May 20.

In the liſt of ordinary expences paid from the Royal Treaſury of France laſt year, were included, 26,000 livres for the encouragement of agriculture and mining; 89,000 were allowed to the King's library, and 100,000 to the Royal Printing-Office.

Government have come to a reſolution of proſecuting as pirates, with the utmoſt rigour, all ſuch as are caught on the high ſeas ſmuggling goods into this kingdom.

There is certainly a great ſimilarity, in ſeveral particulars, between Cromwell and Fox; but there is at the ſame time this ſtriking difference, that Cromwell was ſupported in the accompliſhment of his meaſures by an army of ſaints; and Fox, in his attempt, by a band of ſinners.

A certain Duke (his Grace of Devonſhire, patron of Mr. Fox) is in the high road to the land of annuities: Two ſuch expenſive elections as the preſent, would try the largeſt fortune in Europe.

In order to promote population it has been propoſed, that a tax of one guinea per annum be laid on all Maiden Ladies, above the age of twenty-nine. The difficulty will be in the mode of collecting it; objections cannot be made againſt the hardſhip of the tax, for as it is not to take place till the 29th of September, there is time enough allowed for getting rid of it.

June 12. The new ſyſtem of commerce propoſed between England and France, bartering out hardware, Mancheſter goods, and woolens for different French wines, certainly promiſes great mutual advantages, and may perhaps, be accompliſhed without trenching at all on the treaty with Portugal.

Extract of a letter from Paris, June 3.

"On the 30th ult. the Pariſians reſorted in crowds to Verſailles, to ſee the ceremony of inveſting Mr. le Bailli de Suffrein with the blue ribbon. In the proceſſion were all the Princes of the blood, and all the Knights of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt."

The annual meeting of the QUAKERS in London at Whitſuntide, is productive of various advantages to the metropolis; they lay out a conſiderable ſum of money among tradeſmen for ſubſtantial articles of apparel, houſehold furniture, and other neceſſaries for their country uſe and wear; they ſet a laudable example of neatneſs in dreſs, modeſty in manners, and purity in converſation, well worthy the attention of our young men and women in general; they alſo annually at this period compoſe a ſimple but judicious literary admonition, which they cauſe to be printed for public peruſal; in this tract are contained a ſtrict inveſtigation of the decline or riſe of religion and morality, of happineſs and commerce among their countrymen! They point out the reaſons of our ſucceſſes and misfortunes, ſhewing wherein we have been right, and wherein we have been wrong; and adviſing us to adhere to the paths of piety and prudence, while they warn us againſt ſtraying into thoſe of infidelity and diſſipation. A people ſo diſpoſed, and ſo conducting themſelves, muſt attract, as they certainly challenge, univerſal admiration. They are bleſſings to the ſtate where they dwell, correcting the manners of the people, diffuſing the ſpirit of peace and happineſs among the human race, and promoting commerce and induſtry upon the moſt equitable and juſt terms, between buyer and ſeller, maſter and ſervant, and all the relative and ſocial connexions, which ſhould unite and bind mankind.

In the late election riot a muſket-ball penetrated the head of a magiſtrate four inches, but it not having reached the brain, his worſhip is in a fair way of recovery.

A noble Lord received a violent blow from a broad ſword, on the temple; but meeting with oppoſition from a horn under his Lordſhip's hat, it glanced aſide and cut off the falſe noſe of an honorable Baronet.

Among the Ladies, two loſt their tetes.—One had her cork-rump ſhot off, and ſeveral were deprived of their eye-brows.

June 21. No officer is yet appointed to go to the Eaſt-Indies, and at preſent it remains a doubt whether a flag will be ſent out or not. At the cloſe of the war, government had an intention of equipping a ſquadron of ſeven ſail to remain in thoſe ſeas. The low eſtate of the company's finances at this time, put it out of their power to indemnify government in this undertaking, and of courſe ſuch force only will be ſent out, as the company are enabled to pay for.

A committee of the privy council have been ſitting for ſome time paſt, regulating the boundaries of the two governments into which Nova-Scotia is to be formed: The buſineſs is at length compleated; the new government is to be called New-Brunſwick; the eſtabliſhment is put upon the moſt œconomical footing, as the whole expence of Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Chief Juſtice, and the other inferior appointments do not exceed three thouſand five hundred pounds a year. The lands in the new province have been granted to the northern loyaliſts; government have not, as yet, done any thing towards providing for thoſe of the ſouthern colonies. Colonel Fox is ſaid to have accepted the appointment of Governor of New-Brunſwick; the ſalary is one thouſand pounds a year, which, joined to the emoluments ariſing from fees, will amount to near two thouſand.

Letters from the Hague, dated June 14, declare, that preparations are making there for the reception of his Royal Highneſs the Biſhop of Oſnaburg, who it is ſaid intends paying a viſit to his relation the Stadtholder, previous to his return to England.

The Biſhop of Oſnaburg is eſteemed one of the moſt accompliſhed Princes in Europe. His appointments do not exceed 80,000l. per annum. His territories, which are contained in the circle of Weſtphalia, are not above ſixteen leagues in length and twelve in breadth; but are very populous, and the inhabitants, from their induſtry, and the encouragement they receive from Prince Frederick, are an independent and happy people.

Laſt Saturday's Gazette contains his Majeſty's order in Council, declaring, that any unmanufactured goods or merchandizes, the importation of which is not prohibited by law (except oil) and any pitch, tar, turpentine, indigo, maſts, yards, and bowſprits, being the growth or production of any of the United States of America, may (until further order) be imported directly from thence into any of the ports of this kingdom, either in Britiſh or American ſhips, by Britiſh ſubjects, or by any of the people inhabiting the ſaid United States, and may be entered and landed in any port in this kingdom, upon payment of the ſame duties as the like ſort of goods or merchandiſe are or may be ſubject and liable to if imported by Britiſh ſubjects, in Britiſh ſhips, from any Britiſh iſland or plantation in America, and no other, notwithſtanding ſuch goods or merchandize, or the ſhips in which the ſame may be brought, may not be accompanied with the certificates or other documents heretofore required by law.

June 25. We have it from unqueſtionable authority, that the reports reſpecting the ratification of peace in India, are ſo far from being well founded that Major Fullarton has actually advanced into Tippo Saib's country with a powerful army; and by the ſame advices, which arrived on Wedneſday at the India-houſe, we learn that from the implacable character of Tippo Saib, and his rooted antipathy to the Engliſh, ſtrengthened, it is ſuppoſed, by the artful intrigues of the French court, there is very little likelyhood that any pacific meaſures will take place in that quarter, till one of the parties is abſolutely obliged by the preſſure of neceſſity. We are ſorry to add, that a Mr. Hare, who was returning to this country with a body of friends, and a numerous retinue, was entirely cut off on the deſerts of Arabia by the ferocious tribes of wild Arabs who infeſt thoſe parts. The above diſpatches came over land from India, and contain, it is confidently ſaid, ſome more very intereſting particulars reſpecting our ſituation in that country, which will not be immediately diſcloſed.

June 26. A letter by the Friendſhip, Baſdor, which is arrived from St. Kitt's, ſays, that they have had a very fine ſeaſon, and every thing is in a flouriſhing ſtate; that ſeveral veſſels were loading for England, and that, according to appearance, there is a proſpect of making more ſugars this year than they have done for many years before; that every thing is quiet on the iſland, and the people are very happy that they are again under the government of England.

On Wedneſday the Eaſt-India company took up 12 ſail of the ſhips which are to go out this ſeaſon in their ſervice, and are expected to take up the remainder in a few days.

Compte de Graſſe, ſay our letters from Paris, arrived here on the 8th inſt. (June) together with Monſ. de Bougainville and Monſ. de Vaudreuil the day following. The Compte, it is ſaid, has attempted, but in vain, to procure a reviſion of the late trial at L'Orient.—The following laconic letter he received from the Navy Miniſter, muſt convince him that he has little favour to expect from the Court.—"The King being informed, Sir, that all your memorials are replete with falſe imputations brought to the charge of the principal officers of the navy, forbids you his preſence; and as his Majeſty's Miniſter, adviſe you to return to your ſeat in the country." The ſentence of the court-martial will not be publiſhed till the middle of June, and all that is now ſaid about it, conſiſts of rumours not ſufficiently authenticated to be depended upon.

MONTEGO-BAY, (Jamaica) June 12.

By accounts from the Havanna the reports of the rebellion in South-America are confirmed. It began in the mountainous region towards California; three detachments of troops ſent againſt the inſurgents by the Mexican Viceroy were very ſoon defeated, and no proſpect remained of quelling the diſturbances without powerful and ſpeedy aſſiſtance being ſent from the provinces which ſtill retain their allegiance.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 5.

During the late election ſquabbles for Weſtminſter, the following made its appearance, ſhewing the corruptneſs and treachery of the leaders of that factious, diſſipated nation, from which we were ſo lately and ſo happily freed.

QUERIES to the late MAN of the PEOPLE.

WERE you not intimately connected with the unfortunate TYRIE (who was executed at Portſmouth for conveying intelligence to the enemies of this country) and in company with him the greateſt part of the day and night, previous to his being apprehended?

DID you not agree with a man who ſtands on the records of the Court of King's Bench, in ſeveral inſtances, as the confederate of the ſaid TYRE, to bring him into Parliament for the ſum of £. 2000?

DID you not, Judas-like, receive that ſum, £. 2000, the price of your country's blood?

WHEN the electors of ———, diſcovered that you meant to ſell them to ſuch a character (out of your great reſpect to an equitable repreſentation, and the dignity of the Houſe of Commons—your preſent boaſt) did they not alike virtuouſly reprobate your preſumption?

DID not Mr. TYRE's partner oblige you to refund the £. 2000, and alſo a conſiderable ſum for expences which you had involved him in, under the pretence of bringing him into Parliament?

DID you not know that the £. 2000 paid you was the property of TYRIE?

WHO were the two great men at that time in oppoſition alluded to in TYRIE's letter, wrote by himſelf the night previous to his execution, as having amuſed him to the laſt moment with an aſſurance of pardon, if he would perſevere in ſecreſy?

AUGUST 10.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, dated June 2.

"The gay world have long been endeavouring to turn day into night, and have made conſiderable progreſs toward the attainment of it, but the glory of final ſucceſs is due to the Prince of Wales. On the 11th of laſt month, he gave to 600 of the moſt diſtinguiſhed characters a breakfaſt, at ſix o'clock in the evening. The ladies wore morning dreſſes, fancied in all the varieties of cultivated taſte, and retired to dreſs for the remaining part of the nocturnal day—they ſupped in the morning—we conclude therefore that they dined at midnight.

"This royal example will doubtleſs be followed by all the bon ton, and the little dignities, who love to imitate the great ones, will purſue the practice of their ſuperiors.

"But ſince the great muſt neither eat, drink, nor ſleep, in the ſame manner as their fellow-mortals, the conſequence will be that his Royal Highneſs muſt in a ſhort time give his breakfaſts at 10 o'clock inſtead of ſix—the croud will follow after him, and drive his breakfaſts before them, through all the hours of the night."

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 24.

Yeſterday morning the bodies of two drowned men were found in the river, near Market ſtreet wharf. They were dreſſed in jackets and trouſers, and it is ſaid were ſeen the evening before in liquor, and after quarreling ſome time, began to ſcuffle, and in that dreadful ſituation, fell into the river, and met their unhappy fate.

Auguſt 27. We hear from Edinburgh, that the Rev. Dr. Charles Neſbit, (a Gentleman equally diſtinguiſhed for his learning and attachment to the liberties of America) has conſented to accept of the principal chair in the new college at Carliſle.

Wedneſday laſt departed this life, at Madeiry, Philadelphia County, in an advanced age, Mr. CHRISTOPHER SOWER, ſenior, for many years paſt an eminent printer at Germantown,

BALTIMORE, Auguſt 31.

A late London Newſpaper mentions, that two Commiſſioners from the American Congreſs had lately arrived at Liſbon, with propoſals for ſupplying the Portugueſe with grain, provided it be paid for in caſh, which offer proved very acceptable to the Queen, whoſe ſubjects carry on but little commerce by the exchange of commodities, but pay either in money or by bills, which are punctually honoured when due.

The Legiſlature of New-Jerſey have given leave to bring in a bill for incorporating Trenton and Perth-Amboy, and declaring them free ports for the importation and exportation of Merchandize from and to every part of the world,

The brigantine Betty and Molly, Capt. M'Intoſh, is arrived at Philadelphia from Greenock, with 70 paſſengers, and ſome ſervants.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subſcriber on the 19th inſt. a likely black rawboned country-born Negro Fellow, named WILL, who is very artful and rogueiſh, is about forty years of age, of the middle ſize, ſtands wide between the knees, and when ſtanding bends his knees, long ſlim feet, large ancles and long heel; he is a very handy fellow about plantation buſineſs, drives carriages well, a good ploughman, can ſteck ploughs, underſtands ſtacking and mowing, and can do the common carpenter's jobs neceſſary on a plantation: He took with him a light coloured coat made of country fulled cloth, with metal buttons, black cloth breeches, a pair of old ſhoes and ſtockings, a brown ſhirt and hat. Said fellow has been twice to Philadelphia, where I am apprehenſive he will go again if not apprehended. Four Dollars will be given if he is taken up twenty-five miles from home or under, and reaſonable travelling charges if brought home, and ſo in proportion for every twenty-five miles to the amount of the above Reward.

LEWIS ELLZEY.

Fairfax County, Aug. 24, 1784.

N. B. All perſons are ſtrictly forbid harbouring the ſaid Fellow, and all maſters of veſſels are forewarned not to carry off ſaid Fellow at their peril.

RAN away from the ſhip St. Roza, Capt Perez, lying in this Port, two Sailors, one a Portugueſe, named FRANCISCO D'SILVA, about 5 feet 9 inches high, wears his own hair, dark complexion, about forty-one years of age, his dreſs uncertain, having carried all his cloathing with him:—The other a Spaniard, named DIEGO FERNANDEZ, a tall well-ſet man, about 5 feet 5 inches high, wears his own hair, about 25 years of age, his dreſs uncertain, having taken with him his different cloathing. Whoever takes up either or both of theſe Runaways, and ſecures them in a gaol at Baltimore or Fredericksburg, or any public gaol between the two places, ſhall have a Reward of Ten Dollars for each, incluſive of what the law allows; and, if taken in this Town, Five Dollars for each, incluſive of what the law allows, if taken and delivered to the gaoler here by warrant of a Magiſtrate.

HOOE and HARRISON.

Alexandria, Auguſt 18, 1784.

FOUR DOLLARS REWARD.

STRAYED, in the beginning of May laſt, from the ſubſcriber's Plantation, near Bacon-Race, under the inſpection of John Hobbey, in Prince-William County, TWO STEERS, one a dark red, with a ſtump tail, the other a dark brindle—the tops of both their horns ſawed off, and marked in both ears with a crop, under keel and over keel. The above Reward will be paid on giving information of them, ſo as they may be had again, or TWO DOLLARS for either of them, to ſaid Hobbey, or to me.

THOMAS LAWSON.

POETRY.

AN ODE TO EVENING,
IN IMITATION OF MILTON.

I.

"EVENING, thou Nymph divine and holy,
Devout, demure, and melancholy;
Oh teach me, gentle maid,
In penſive ſtrains to tell my tale,
Soft as the breathings of the gale
That fans thy ſleeping ſhade.

II.

Full on yon heaving billow's breaſt
His head reclin'd, eyes ſunk in reſt:
I view the falling light.
With him, the wakeful pleaſures fly
To climes, where day ne'er ſhuts his eye,
Nor dreads the ſullen night.

III.

But now, thy folding dewy ſtar,
Its paly circlet ſhews from far,
To warn the dapper elves
That ſlept in roſe-buds all day long,
Or lurk'd amidſt the ſun beams throng,
To haunt the lawns and ſhelves.

IV.

And many a nymph who ſheds her brows
With Sedge-leaves dipt in freſh'ning dews,
Now leave their wet abode.
But church-yards drear, and lonely ſhores,
The lated traveller abhors,
And takes a ſafer road.

V.

Then let me rove ſome healthy ſcene,
Where glaring ruin ſits between,
And tomb ſtones ſhew their head;
Where o'er a grave ſome plaintive ghoſt
Bewails a life untimely loſt,
And charms the liſt'ning dead.

VI.

In days now paſt, ſure days of yore,
When mankind own'd religion's pow'r,
Nor ſcorn'd a SAVIOUR's ſway;
GOD's praiſe, with morning's light begun,
And when the ev'ning bell was rung,
It ſooth'd the twilight gray.

VII.

But now, forgotten and forlorn,
With eyes enflam'd, the flufhed morn
Sees rebel-mortals riſe,
Nor night, in all her brown array,
Can bend the ſtubborn heart to pray,
Or learn them to be wiſe.

VIII.

But ſoon a midnight trump ſhall blow,
And bid the ſheeted dead, below,
Awake and meet their doom:
A midnight, ah! how blank and drear,
To him who never pour'd a pray'r,
Nor begg'd a SAVIOUR's boon."
